Nampak’s response to current macroeconomic conditions

Market conditions

› Subdued economic growth in key markets
  » Lower commodity prices
  » Drought
  » Tightening global financial conditions
› Volatile currencies
› Higher inflation
› Consumer spending impacted

Nampak’s strategic response

› Buy Better
  » Savings flowing through – R120 million benefit by year-end

› Make Better
  » 29% improvement in safety
  » Glass turned around and profitable
  » Operations excellence: Plastics and Bevcan improvements contributing to performance

› Sell Better
  » Further SKU rationalisation contributes to better product mix and margin
  » Glass wine bottle opportunity, gaining market share

› Cash conservation and balance sheet structure improvement
  » Sale and leaseback expected to yield R1.7 billion to reduce liabilities
  » No interim ordinary dividend declared in light of liquidity constraints and elevated debt levels
  » Balance sheet restructured, current ratio strengthened by 20%
  » R169 million released from inventories since Sept 2015 despite weaker ZAR/USD
  » FY16 cost savings from headcount reduction and general measures expected
  » Capex curbed, new projects approved by exception
Operations excellence: operational performance continues to improve

- Bevcan yielding results, consultation on shutdown of Durban commenced – approximately R40 million annual savings expected
- Plastics improvements contributing to performance
- R114 million swing in Glass performance
Rationale for cash conservation and balance sheet structure improvement

› R10.4 billion net outflow from capital expenditure, divestitures and acquisitions (2011 to 2016)
  » Net debt increased from R16 million (2011) to R7.4 billion (2016)
  » Gross gearing peaked at 91% with net gearing of 72% in financial year 2015
  » Dividend policy maintained at 64.5% payout over the period

› Projects did not initially deliver expected returns
  » Glass Furnace 3 (approved 2012)
  » Bevcan aluminium conversion (approved 2011)

› Weakening ZAR/USD impacts translation of USD390 million USD denominated debt (obtained since 2013), bringing net debt/EBITDA to 2.7 times

› R1.5bn restricted cash in Angola and Nigeria impacts group’s liquidity
Balance sheet bolstered
R1.7 billion sale and lease back transaction

› Proceeds to be used to retire liabilities
› Sixteen properties, R350 million book value, sold for R1.7 billion
› Subject to legal process, competition authority approval and lender consent
› Transaction terms:
  » 3 – 15 years for strategic properties with pre-emptive rights to repurchase and renewal options
  » Rental escalating at CPI
› Significantly reduce gearing levels
› Net rental equivalent to rental paid prior to transaction, competitiveness not affected
› Capital gains tax credits used, rentals tax deductible
› HEPS positive over lease period, hurdle rate at 14.8%
Oil price recovering
naira pegged, kwanza devaluing

R367 million of the R1.5 billion restricted cash in Angola and Nigeria hedged

Source: Bloomberg
Rest of Africa an important growth driver: trading profit up 45%

- Recorded sales of R2.8 billion, and generated a trading profit of R462 million
- Rest of Africa now contributes 47% to trading profit, up from 38% in 2015
- Trading margin of 16.5% (2015:14.7%)
- Operating margin of 12.4% after abnormal foreign exchange rate effects still above South African trading margin of 8.5%
- Current challenges do not change the overall investment rationale in key markets
- Long-term fundamentals remain intact

Looking forward

- Key market GDP growth rate estimates revised downwards for 2016, recovery expected from 2017
- Operations expected to continue generating growth in revenue and profit supported by beverage market demand growth

Abnormal items are losses or gains not arising from normal trading activities or are of such a size, nature or incidence that their disclosure is relevant to explain the performance for the period.

R114 million loss on translation of financial instruments relates to the devaluation of the Angolan kwanza during the period.

The once-off gain of R124 million in 2015 resulted from the restructuring of the Zimbabwe group.

- Group trading results
  - Impacted by kwanza devaluation versus the USD
  - Benefited from translation of non-South African earnings at a weaker ZAR
- Weaker ZAR boosts group equity
  - R963 million increase in foreign currency translation reserve – impacts ROE
- Weaker ZAR/USD exchange rate on 31 March 2016 impacted translation of net long-term debt
  - ZAR has devalued by a further 6% against the USD since 30 September 2015 (ZAR/USD = R13.86)
- On 31 March 2016, Nampak cash balances in Nigeria and Angola were R1.5 billion up from R700 million on 30 September 2015
  - During the period approximately 60% liquidity was achieved from Nigerian and Angolan banks
  - Offshore funding rate slowed considerably towards the end of the reporting period as various management interventions took place
  - R367 million (USD25 million) hedged in Angola via USD linked kwanza bonds

Low tax rate as the group continued to benefit from:

» Government grants for capital-related projects in Bevcan
» Lower tax rates in tax jurisdictions outside South Africa
» Utilisation of existing capital gains tax (CGT) losses to offset capital gains arising from sale and lease back transaction

Sale and lease back transaction primary reason for tax rate lower than previous guidance

Tax rate expected to return to previous guidance range of 15% – 20% in 2017
Proportion of USD net borrowings impacted by the weaker ZAR/USD and ZAR/GBP

- R5.7 billion USD denominated interest bearing debt
  - USD debt raised since 2013 to fund Nigeria acquisition and Angola expansion where revenues are USD linked
- Nigerian and Angolan USD liquidity impacting ability to match USD debt with USD cash holdings
  - Impact of ZAR/USD movement is partially off-set by GBP cash holdings translated at weaker exchange rate

Prudent approach to dividend

- Strong cash generation in the rest of Africa
  - Repatriation currently hampered by in country USD shortages
- Rest of Africa liquidity issues and elevated debt
- Volatile exchange rates and increasing interest rates in key markets on elevated interest bearing debt
- Reduction of interest bearing debt and gearing a key strategic objective
- Not considered prudent to apply the historic dividend policy under current circumstances
- No interim ordinary dividend declared
  - Improve gearing
  - Reduce interest costs
  - Contribute towards balance sheet restructuring
- Future ordinary dividends dependent on macroeconomic conditions, liquidity and cash generated from operations

Current macroeconomic risks and challenges, oil recovery a trigger for a turnaround

Angola
- Oil sector contributes 36% to GDP and 97% of exports
- Weaker government spending in light of the lower oil price
- Consumer spending under pressure
- Projects to enhance agriculture, manufacturing and other non-oil sector industries likely to go ahead
- Potential further currency devaluation – appears the BNA is willing to let currency depreciate further
- $25 million dollar hedged, R150 million exposed, liquidity improving, net repayments on IOM loan accounts
- 2016 Angola budget based on $45/bbl., IMF provides support

Nigeria
- Government ambitious capital expenditure plan – may contribute to improvements in disposable income
- 2016 budget higher than 2015 – shortfall will be funded with debt
- Challenges in accessing foreign exchange impacting private sector operations
- USD/NGN pegged at around 199 – government has said devaluation not on the cards
- R640 million restricted cash exposed to devaluation

Countering the risks and challenges of doing business in Africa

› Political and country risk
  » Countries in which Nampak does business have relatively lower political risk
  » Nampak has been doing business in the rest of Africa for 15+ years

› Regulatory risk
  » Packaging industry rarely a target for government intervention
  » In most countries packaging industry seen as key to creating employment and skills transfer

› Fiscal and monetary risk
  » Nampak business predominantly done in local currency linked to the USD

› Resources, raw materials and infrastructure availability
  » Plant location and self-sufficiency very important

› Payment risk
  » Approximately 60% Nampak customers are multinational companies

› Liquidity and forex risk
  » Bevcan businesses “USD pricing”
  » Good relationships with authorities
  » Manufacturing a key industry in most African countries
Nampak’s strong position

Contractual commitments supporting investment in new lines (3 – 6 Years)

| Long-term contracted volumes (>90% of total market) | Non-contracted volumes (<10%) |
| Five customers | >40 customers |
| On average very long run lengths | Typically “Make to order” due to forecast volatility/uncertainty |

- Pack share low by international standards
- Long-term pricing based on notional most-efficient entrant
- Double digit volume growth in South Africa required the industry to invest in additional capacity
- Largest beverage can manufacturer in Africa provides local economies of scale
- Low-cost producer
- Strong market position with in-depth knowledge of local market dynamics
- Well established footprint
- Proven track record – trusted supplier
- Modern assets built at a much stronger ZAR/USD than today
